Provision of personal data to third parties

The association will only provide/share personal data with third parties without consent if necessary to execute the legal obligations of the closed contract or if it has any other legal obligation to do so. See the chart for potentially involved third parties.

Withdrawal of consent

It is possible to at any time for any reason withdraw given consent. The association then cannot and will not use the specific personal data received with this consent anymore. This data will be removed after the retention period ends or when specifically requested.

Access, correction and deletion of personal data

You have the right to gain access to your specifically collected personal data (unless the association cannot be held to do so on ground of the GDPR) and to have your personal data corrected, deleted or shielded/hidden. We will need to properly identify you before processing this request. If requested and checked, the association will delete all selected data and communicate this request through to all other parties that have received selected data.

Protection personal data

The association takes appropriate measures to protect your personal data against loss, unauthorized access, publication and unlawful processing. This way we make sure that only the required personnel have access to your data, that access to the data is shielded and that our measures are regularly monitored.

Links to other websites

This website contains links to other websites. This GDPR statement is only applicable to websites of this association. Other websites may have their own privacy policies. The association recommends to always check for and consult specific privacy policies per site.

Changes to the GDPR statement

The association may regularly change this privacy statement to keep it up-to-date. The association recommends checking this statement regularly. If any substantial changes occur, the association will try to communicate this clearly via e-mail and on the website.
